

ANDREW RICH WINES

2009 Tabula Rasa White

Once the exclusive summertime boisson of Portland's horsey set, the white version of our "blank slate" wine has been taken up by the masses—from the pierced and inked hanging out in inner southeast to Hillsboro soccer moms. And no wonder: Gewürztraminer (58%) provides an enticing floral note and a refreshing kick of acidity on the finish while Roussanne (42%) adds weight and flesh without heaviness. This goes with just about everything except red meat, but it pairs especially well with sunny weather and a comfortable deck chair.

- Bottled September 2010
 - 250 cases produced
 - Fermented in stainless steel and neutral barrels
- Celilo and Alder Ridge Vineyards

ANDREWRICHWINES.COM